

NO MORE VICTIMS – COLLEGE OF ALAMEDA CHAPTER
(Meetings on Wednesdays from 1 to 2pm, College of Alameda Cafeteria)

“Healing the Wounds of War, One Child at a Time.”

Shaymaa – 5 years old

On April 6, 2004, 3 month old Shaymaa was paralyzed by a US missile strike in which over thirty members of her family were killed. Today, Shaymaa needs your help.

The No More Victims – College of Alameda chapter would like to help little Shaymaa, and we need YOU!

Please come to our first meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 25 and join our chapter. We are working with No More Victims to bring direct support to little Shaymaa and her family. Join our fantastic group of students and help us promote peace around the world.

For more information about the chapter, please contact Stephanie at calimero126@gmail.com, or (510)316-0012.

No More Victims (www.nomorevictims.org) works to obtain medical sponsorships for war-injured Iraqi children, and to forge ties between the children, their families and communities in the United States, while advocating and educating for Peace
